

Square Metre Rule 100 year

KSSS Jubilee Regatta for Square Metre Yachts

Organizer: KSSS (races) och SSKF (other activities).

Time: August 6-9.

Place: Saltsjöbaden, Baggenfjärden.

The Square Metre Rule is in 2008 celebrating its 100 year anniversary with a Jubilee Regatta in Saltsjöbaden for all classes, between 15-150 square metre. KSSS - Royal Swedish Yacht Club - has during the last 100 year been active in the development of the Square Metre Yachts and is therefore the organizer of choice for the regatta.

Information

When KSSS only organizes the races it is SSKF who organizes all other activities. These other activities have certain costs associated that must be financed by the participants themselves or sponsors. This includes harbour fees, dinners and social activities. You must register and pay for the things you are participating to. Mandatory is to register the yacht and crew on <http://jubilee.smry.org> or with the enclosed form.

Races

Do not forget that you have to register and pay for the races to KSSS, look at <http://www.ksss.se>.

Races will be organized for all Square Metre classes, between 15-150 square metre.

A22s is sailing International Swedish Championships and Skärgårdskryssarepokalen. That is Sweden's oldest still used racing trophy which was first used in 1910 by the SK30 class, but since 1933 it's the A22s who are competing for the trophy. This year the 22s are competing for the 16th version of the trophy. It's the 14th time that KSSS has been organizer of the Skärgårdskryssarepokalen. Other Trophy's to compete for is Tage Plåts Minnespris, Tricksonpokalen, Ivar Brunelius Vandringpris och Debutantpokalen.

SK30 is sailing Europe Cup and International Swedish National Championships and attracts sailors from 10 nations. Europe Cup is staged alternately in Sweden and on the Bodensee every second year so it's located in Sweden every 4th year. The first time Europe Cup was staged in Sweden was 1980, and also this time organized by KSSS. The SK30s will compete for the Europe Cup trophy, Alice and Arvid Laurin pokalen and Jerker Nilson pokalen to the best older wooden yacht.

The Championship races will be staged at an upwind-downwind course at Baggenfjärden.

All other Square Metre classes between 15-150 square metre will sail on a course at Baggenfjärden with fixed marks and on a course in the archipelago.

Note that you have to register and pay for both races and other activities.

Participating yachts

SSKF and KSSS hope for at least 100 participating yachts from 10 nations (USA, Great Britain, Germany, France, Hungary, Finland, Denmark, Switzerland, Austria and Sweden). It will be celebrations with activities every evening. All yachts will be moored in Hotellviken and available for all people to enjoy.
